Stock Donation Instructions

Stock donations have a specific tax advantage, as they are not subject to recognized capital gains taxes on the investment – therefore, you don’t have to pay taxes on the appreciation of stocks in your portfolio. Donating the stocks directly ensures that The Enough Project receives the full market value of the stocks, allows you to enjoy a higher tax deduction than if you had sold them first, and allows you to avoid capital gains taxes altogether. If you choose to transfer stock to the Enough Project at the New Venture Fund, please share the information below with your broker and notify the Enough Project once the stock gift has been sent. Please also indicate that this contribution should be designated to the Enough Project. We will then execute a sale, transfer the net proceeds to NVF’s operating account, and credit you with a contribution of that amount. Notifying us ahead of time to expect the donation will help speed the process along.

Stock donations are logged at the stock’s value at the time of donation, and our team works to process them as quickly as possible. Stock transfers usually take two to three weeks to process, both because of the number of parties involved in the transaction and because of SEC regulations.

The donation amount will not be included in your acknowledgement letter, as IRS rules require that acknowledgment of gifts of property, including stocks, should include a description of the property but not the amount. Your acknowledgment will include the number of shares and the date of transfer. Please consult your tax adviser for guidance on determining the tax deductible amount of your gift.

If you make a stock donation, please alert Frederick Dechow, Senior Accountant, New Venture Fund at Fred.Dechow@arabellaadvisors.com and note that funds are to be allocated to the Enough Project. An email noting the amount transferred and the project for which the funds are designated is sufficient.

On behalf of the entire Enough Project, thank you for your contribution, and we look forward to continuing to grow this movement with you moving forward.
